Eau de You

You know that “signature scent” thing? For so long, it meant finding the one...for life! But let’s be real: The average Cosmo girl wears up to four fragrances because you know the power they possess. One spritz can make you feel happier; another, drop-dead sexy; then there’s that confidence booster, stress reliever...the list of feels goes on. So what are you searching for right now? Let our personality-based picta quiz guide you, then find your pick at Macy’s Scent Event (online starting March 26 and in stores March 28 through April 3), or Snap here to shop.
